

Cambridge Antiquarian Society

The Architecture and Archaeology of Ely: Papers in memory of Anne Holton-Krayenbuhl

Saturday 10th March 2018

The Maltings, Ship Lane, Ely, CB7 4BB

10:00 – 10:05	Introduction - Alison Dickens (CAS President)
10:05 – 10:45	Queens or saints? Anglo-Saxon women's burials in the time of Etheldreda - Dr Catherine Hills (University of Cambridge)
10:45 – 11:15	Coffee Displays and book sales in the breaks
11:15 – 12:00	Reconstructing the Romanesque cathedral at Ely - Dr Roland Harris (Cathedral Archaeologist)
12:00 – 12:45	Historic England's investigation of early urban buildings in Ely - Rebecca Lane (Historic England)
12:45 – 2:00	Lunch
2:00 – 2:45	Bishop Hotham's tomb at Ely: the problem and a possible solution - Dr John Maddison
2:45 – 3:30	Modelling the medieval vaults at Ely Cathedral - Dr Nick Webb (University of Liverpool)
3:30 – 4:00	Tea
4:00 – 4:45	So much more than a modest contribution – Anne Holton-Krayenbuhl and Ely Cathedral - Elizabeth Stazicker (Cathedral Archivist)

The Maltings is located on Ship Lane, Ely. Long stay car parking is available at the nearby Ship Lane or Forehill car parks, or at other car parks in Ely.

A location map is available at <http://www.themaltingsely.org.uk/contact>

Receipts will not be issued unless requested. If you would like a paper receipt please include a sae with your booking form.

For any queries please contact secretary@camantsoc.org

Cambridge Antiquarian Society

The Architecture and Archaeology of Ely: Papers in memory of Anne Holton-Krayenbuhl

Booking form

Please detach and send this form by Tuesday 6th March to CAS Conference, 21 Crowlands, Cottenham, Cambridge, CB24 8TE

Name _____

Address _____

Email _____

Telephone _____

Please reserve me

<input type="checkbox"/>	conference places @ £10 each* (CAS members / affiliates)	£
<input type="checkbox"/>	conference places @ £15 each* (non-members / affiliated societies)	£
<input type="checkbox"/>	sandwich lunches @ £7 each	£
	TOTAL	£

I enclose a cheque/crossed postal order payable to 'Cambridge Antiquarian Society' for £

Please state any special requirements, including dietary:

Signed _____

Date _____

* includes morning and afternoon coffee/tea & biscuits

 includes selection of sandwiches, savoury bites, homemade cake and crisps

